

Shadowbox
Announces Jesus
Christ Superstar as
Newest Musical
Production

July 24, 2008, Columbus, OH - - Shadowbox is continuing their run of successful musicals by announcing their next endeavor, Jesus Christ Superstar! This rock opera, written by Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice, is powerful and political. Jesus Christ Superstar follows the lives of Jesus and Judas from the time of Jesus' arrival in Jerusalem through his crucifixion. Full of 21st century attitudes, the high-energy production boldly draws parallels between Christ's time and ours.

The show, which won a Tony award the year it opened, 1972, for best original score, features well known songs such as "I Don't Know How to Love Him", "Hosanna", and, of course, "Superstar". The show also received a Tony Award nomination in 2000 for Best Revival of a musical.

Shadowbox will produce this popular rock opera on Sundays starting October 5 with performances at 3pm and 7:30pm through November 16. Tickets are $30 for adults and $20 for students and seniors. For reservations, contact the Shadowbox box office at (614) 416-7625, or go online at www.shadowboxcabaret.com.

Shadowbox is sponsored by Coca Cola, Costume Specialists, Crawford Communities, Genesis Audio, Mark Hefner Photography, Outlook Weekly, The Team, and WCBE.
